

Holocaust remembrance and politics of memory in the EU

My PhD thesis is about how the European Union (EU), especially the European Parliament, has addressed the memory of the Holocaust from 1989 to 2009. In my thesis I analyse how the EU has used the memory of the Holocaust as a political tool for the (intended) construction of a European community of memory.