

Public transportation guides

We recommend buying a City-Pass (small) for 72 hours in one of the DSB vending machines at the stations in Copenhagen or at the airport. It will allow you to travel from the airport to Copenhagen as well as get around as much as you want inside Copenhagen zones 1-4, which cover all of the city.

If planning alternative routes than the below recommended, use the app/website 'Journey Planner'.

From the airport

How to get to DIIS/Charlottehaven from airport

Arriving at Copenhagen Airport, the easiest way to get to DIIS is to take the regular train to Copenhagen Central Station – just remember to buy a City-Pass or a ticket in the machine before you go down to the platform. You will need a ticket for 3 zones and the trip is approx. 20-25 minutes. The trains depart from terminal 3 in the airport.

When you have arrived at Copenhagen Central Station, take one of the following S-trains (A, B, C or E) to Nordhavn Station (approx. 7-8 minutes – you have 4 stops on the way, get off on the fourth stop). Remember to buy your ticket in the machine before you enter the train.

Address: You will find DIIS reception on Gl. Kalkbrænderi Vej 51A – just across the street from Nordhavn Station. Charlottehaven is just behind DIIS at Hjørringgade 12C.

How to get to a hotel near Nørreport Station from the airport

Arriving at Copenhagen Airport, the easiest way to go directly to your hotel is to take the metro to Nørreport Station – just remember to buy a City-Pass or a ticket in the machine before you enter the metro (it is not possible to buy tickets in the metro). You have 9 stops on the way, get off at the ninth stop (Nørreport st). The trip is approx. 15 minutes. The metro departs from terminal 3 at the airport.

How to get to a hotel near CPH Central Station from the airport

Arriving at Copenhagen Airport, the easiest way to go directly to your hotel is to take the regular train to Copenhagen Central Station – just remember to buy a ticket in the machine before you go down to the platform. You will need a City-Pass or a regular ticket for 3 zones and the trip is approx. 20-25 minutes. The trains depart from terminal 3 in the airport. The main station is called "København H" or CPH H.

From hotels to DIIS/Charlottehaven

From the Central station + Vesterport station + Nørreport Station to Nordhavn Station (DIIS)

Take one of the following S-trains (A, B, C or E) to Nordhavn Station – the end station will vary, but Nordhavn Station will figure as a stop on the way. Depending on your station, it will be 2-4 stops and take around ten minutes. The S-trains will have separate tracks marked with a big red S.

Walk out of Nordhavn Station and find DIIS just on the other side of the road (be aware of bicycles!).

Address: You will find the DIIS reception on Gl. Kalkbrænderi Vej 51A. Charlottehaven is just behind DIIS at Hjørringgade 12C.
