

International relations and European studies in Poland – current state and prospects for development

Conference is meant to bring together Polish researchers specialising in international relations and European studies, in order to discuss the state of these two sub-disciplines of political science, and determine the directions of their development. The point of departure will be final results of the research project “The State of the International Relations and European Studies Disciplines in Poland”, which will be presented at the conference. The project is financed by the National Science Centre agreement no. UMO-2012/07/B/HS5/03961.

The conference is organised by the Institute of European Studies and the Institute of International Relations (University of Warsaw), the Polish Association of European Studies, the Polish Association of International Studies, and the Central and East European International Studies Association. It will take place at the University of Warsaw on 18th March 2015, address: ul. Krakowskie Przedmieście 32, Warsaw. The conference will be held in Polish and in English with translation provided.
